THE MOST FUN FOR KIDS

Fun On & Off The Snow

Face Painting At Kid's Center

Start your child on snow at Ski Brule. Their first experience will not only have them skiing, but they will also have the time of their life! Children learn about equipment, walking, sliding, riding the towrope, carrying their gear (so you won't have to) and getting up after a fall. It is three hours of fun on and off the snow. The best part is they learn to ski through fun and games which makes it a positive experience and you won't get frustrated trying to teach your child. Nothing but smiles as children ski, play on the slides, bounce house, & sip hot cocoa.

Childcare is ideal for those not ready to ski or in need of a break. Children participate in activities including; art, face painting, story time and outdoor fun (dependent on children's ages & weather).

Contact Ski Brule for early season & late season schedule. Minimum 24 Hour advance reservations required, except Saturday & Sunday.

Homestead Lodge

The most unique mid mountain lodges around, the Homestead Lodge is a 'must enjoy' on a visit to Ski Brule. Located on Homestead Trail & accessible from North Forty, Homestead Lodge is a favorite stop for a warm up, lunch and beverage.

It is an actual homestead that was settled by the Oberg family in the 1800's. Decorated with antique farm implements, photos, pot belly stoves and the Homestead Act certificate, signed by President McKinley, hangs on the wall.

BBQ Dinner, Tubing & Sleigh Ride

A night to remember at Ski Brule is the Homestead BBQ, tubing & sleigh ride, 5-8:00 on Saturday. A shuttle from the Brule Lodge will bring you to the marshmallow roast while you wait for the sleigh ride to the BBQ. Ride the free sleigh to the Homestead where sounds of toe tapping music fills the air. Then feast on Ski Brule's famous pulled pork, bbq chicken, baked beans, sauerkraut, salad, mashed potatoes, gravy, applesauce, rolls and cake. A complimentary beer, wine or soda is included with the meal. Then it's tubing time at Homestead Lodge.
